

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Domestic Violence Awareness Month (DVAM) began as The Day of Unity in 1981 and focused on connecting advocates across the country who were working to end domestic violence. By 1987, the day had grown into an entire month devoted to mourning those who have died due to domestic violence, celebrating those who have survived, and connecting those who work to end violence. Throughout the entire month of October, the Domestic Violence Resource Center (DVRC) will be participating in activities devoted to DVAM.

We invite you to join us in spreading awareness and supporting survivors!

Peace..
