Community Advocacy Program

Domestic Violence is a pattern of coercive behavior aimed at gaining and maintaining power and control over an intimate partner. The Domestic Violence Resource Center's Community Advocacy Program provides advocacy for survivors of domestic violence, regardless of gender identity or sexual orientation. All services are provided free of charge. Services include:

- ◆ Protective order assistance
- ◆ Advocacy & safety planning
- ◆ Resource referrals
- ◆ Court accompaniment
- ◆ Community education & outreach

Other DVRC Services Include:

- ◆ 24-Hour Crisis Line: (503) 469-8620 or (866) 469-8600
- ◆ Counseling for adult and child survivors of domestic violence
- ◆ Monika's House is the only domestic violence shelter in Washington County. Monika's House welcomes domestic violence survivors of all genders and sexual orientations and accepts pets of survivors.
